

Get Paid To Post On Forums

By Mel Lancaster of <http://www.online-money-1.com>

What You Will Need:

- * Paypal account if you haven't got one. You can find a link at the bottom of <http://online-money-1.com> to open one.
- * Email address
- * At least 3 paid to post forums.

Paid to post forums, what are they?

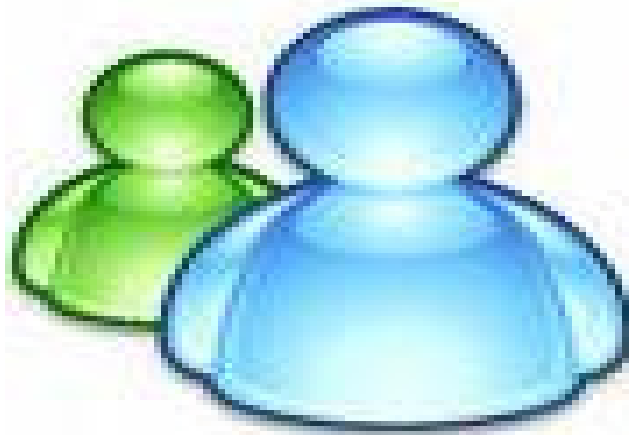

They are forums that pay their members cash, for posting comments, or starting new topics. How much you get paid, depends on the forum owners.

Some pay as little as $00.02 cent per post, while I have seen others pay $00.15 cent per post, to its premium members.

There's a couple of forum websites, that give you points per post. You can then change these points into:

- * Hosting
- * Domain names
- * Templates
- * Also cash

This enables you to have a website paid for, just for posting on a forum FANTASTIC!

How To Maximize Forum Posting

If you are wanting to earn some money online, you're starting from a cash pot of nothing. Then getting paid to post on forums, is a good place to start.

This will help you get a few extra dollars in your Paypal account, for giving advice or receiving advice, from like minded people.

To maximize your earning potential on forum posting. You will need to join at least THREE paid to post forums.

You will find the links for some paid to post forums below:

Now that you have joined the forums, lets get started.

Idea 1:

- * Open your notepad and write a few sentences, on what ever you would like to talk about.
- * Copy your short article, and start a thread on each of the sites you have joined. If you have joined three paid to post forums, then well done you have just been paid three times for the same short article.
- * Now repeat process again.
- * Also make sure you check your threads and answer any comments left there. This also will earn you money.

Idea 2:

- * With each of these forums you will get a referral link.
- * Copy your referral links into your word pad.
- * Now for the clever part. In each forum you have something called a signature. Which is a link to a website or web page, at the bottom of every thread or post, you make.
- * Your referral links, will be your signatures. Just paste your links into your signature boxes.
- * If your not sure about how to do this, just go to the forums. Start a thread and ask. If you do this, you will earn some more money.
- * The reason for your signatures being your referral links?
Every time a visitor clicks on that link, and signs up, you get paid.

Idea 3:

- * Join half a dozen other normal forums.
- * Start a thread saying:

Would you like to get paid between 2 - 15 cents for every post or thread you write in a forum. Etc... Etc... You add more details.

And ask them to PM (private message) you for more details.

- * When you get the PM's, send them back the referral links, and say good luck.
- * When they sign up you get paid.

Idea 4:

- * Post on your website if you have one.
- * Try posting on Digg or other social networking site.
- * Post in free classified online ads sites. (blogs, directories, free websites in fact anywhere you can think of.)

The above ideas are just that, IDEAS. You can use them if you wish or put your own plans into effect.

Important:

Using this method of earning money online is not a long term solution. The paid to post forums websites, seem to come and go fairly quickly.

So I advise you to use this for a short term only, getting paid maybe once or twice of each forum.

This method is for people starting from scratch, Zero $00.00. It enables them fairly quickly and easily, to gain money in there Paypal account.

This in term will enable them to invest in themselves and earn a little more each time.
